the following story of their disappearance ast night:

"On Tuesday the children were playing together on the street then when I heard the whistle of the postman blow. When I went to the was not around and I found a postal cardlying on the steps. It said on it. Go to s. Fourth avenue at once, where a triend wishes to see you on important business." I went down town in a hurry. As I was crossing the street, little Willie came running after me, and begged to be taken along. I told him I would be back soon and promised to bring him some candy. hen I went over to Columbus avenue and took a car. I couldn't find any such number as the one given in the postal ambus avenue and took a car. I couldn't find any such number as the one given in the postal card, so I came back. I came up on an Eighth avenue car and got to 193d street at 3:30 o'clock. In front of the entrance to the Park I saw Bessie Joyce, a little girl who lives in the house. She told me that Willie and Annie were in the Park playing. I told her to tell them to come home early and she said she would. Some other children told me that they saw them.

ANOTHER CLAY COUNTY FEUD. The Davidsons and Philpots Clash-One Killed, Two Injured.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 24.—Another feud has started at Manchester, the seat of Clay county, where during the past year, through three feuds, twenty men have died with their boots on. This time the war is between the Davidsons, backed by deputies under Sheriff White, and the Philpots backed by the Bakers and the Meggs. Last night, in front of White's store, a dispute arose and the factions lined up against each other. They sought refuge behind houses and trees, shooting promiseuously in all directions. David Davidson, father of Felix Davidson, who was killed several weeks ago, fell with bullets through his chest, shoulder and legs. Jim Stamps was shot through the left arm and Mort Stubbs caught a bullet in his left hip.

STRUCK AGAINST A CENT A TIE.

Neckwear Girls Hard Hearted Toward a Poitte Employer Who Tried to Reduce Wages. Fifty girls engaged in making necktles in Leopold Schmook's factory, 431 Broome street, struck yesterday against a reduction of wages from 14 to 12 cents a dozen. Schmook was very polite about making the announcement of the reduction. He said: polite about making the announcement of the reduction. He said:

"Girls, I have to do a thing I am exceedingly sorry for. I regret to say I am compelled to reduce your wages from 14 to 12 cents a dozen."

The girls belong to the United Neckwear Workers Union and their leader, Lizzie Roth, spoke up and said they would give an answer after lunch hour. The girls met, and most of them of the reduction in a polite way, they ought to accept it. The Roth faction talked these round, however, and it was decided that it was a disgrace to make neckties for a cent each. They established strike headquarters at 95 Ridge street, where some of their members made speeches.

He was met in the station here to-night by Mrs. McGuire, Confidential Clerk Wheaton, Comptroller Manz and several reporters. The Princeton freshman football team was also present to see the fun.

As the train came to a stop Mrs. McGuire rushed forward with the book of warrants. The Mayor fumped from the car, hurriedly grabbed a pen and began to sign his name as fast as he could. Clerk Wheaton turned the leaves, Comptroller Manz wieided a blotter, while a reporter rushed wildly to buy a return ticket. As the last warrant was signed the train for New York began to move. The Mayor ran after it, and as he caught the rear platform he turned to shout: "Tell them I signed it under protest!" the Princeton boys yelled "Rah! rah! rah!" and the train disappeared. ## DR. BULL INVESTIGATION SLOW. An Amdavit as to the Purchase of Mercury Secured After Eight Months. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—Coroner Dugan and the police officials of this city do not hesitate to acknowledge that they have been more than ordinarily slow in bringing to some conclusion their investigation into the cause of the death of the late Dr. George W. Bull, who died at his home, 825 South Forty-eighth street, June 14, 1898. Eight months ago the Coroner and Captain of Detectives Miller were asked by John W. E. York, who is an attaché of the District Attorney's office in New York, to look into the circumstances surrounding the death of Dr. Bull. He intimated that the doctor had come to his death by other than natural causes and suggested that the body be disinterred and an examination made of the intestines.

The Coroner said to-day that he had not made FORGERY, PLAIN ENOUGH.

The callers lost no time in taking advantage of the President's presence in Canton. They are pouring in about as fast as they did when he was here during the summer months. Up to this time Secretary Root is the only one well known in official and political life, but there have been scores seeking little personal favors or merely satisfying a curiosity to see and shake hands with the President.

The President's party attending the Sherman funeral to-morrow will include Judge Day, Secretary to the President Cortelyou, Judge George E. Baldwin and Postmaster George B. Frease of this city, and Col. Myron T. Herrick, Gen. Garrettson, Col. James H. Hoyt and Samuel Mather of Cleveland. They will occupy a special car of the Pennsylvania company, which will be attached to the funeral train from Washington at 7.30 in the morning. The special car will run to Canton late in the afternoon. The President's party will be joined at Mansfield by Senater Hanna, and while in that city all will be entertained by Congressman Kerr. Senator Forsker and Gov. Nash will also attend the funeral and will be entertained by W. S. Capeller.

to Dr. Williams, that Iteller had been kicked and beaten and that his brain had been injured. Perhaps Heller was clubbed by a policeman, "Said Dr. Williams, "or perhaps he was beaten in the alcoholic ward. I have been trying to learn something about the case to-day at Relicvue, but every effort I made to get information was thwarted by the nurses. "Heller's case is only one of many that are occurring all the time and which I discover in making autopsies. Men are murdered in our streets and the police don't take the trouble to investigate, but get out of it by saying that the victims committed suicide or met with accidents. I performed an autopsy on a Chinaman the other day and found that he had been beaten to death. One of his legs was pulverized. The police paid no attention to that case. "Then came the finding of the body of Frederica Craigir in West Sixty-fifth street last Saturday night. The woman's wrists were cut slightly, so the police jumped at the conclusion that all the woman's ribs were broken, so they declared that she had committed suicide. conclusion that she had committed suicide. I found that all the woman's ribs were broken, so they declared that she had jumped from a window while delirious. There would have been no arrest in that case if I had not interfered. I will drop a body from a stepladder in the Morrue on Saturday to show that a fall from a window could not have caused the injuries which caused the Craigir woman's death."

A METHODIST'S RESOLUTIONS.

Unchristian, They Say, to Vote for Either the Republican or Democratic Party.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 24. - The temptation to attack the Administration at Washington could not be resisted to-day by the ultra prohibition element in the State Methodist Convention. The Rev. Dr. Silas C. Swallow was on hand with a long series of resolutions setting forth that the General Conference, held in Chicago last May, had incorporated in the Book of Discipline a paragraph practically obligating Methodists to withhold their support from all political parties so long as they refuse to record themselves against the saloon. Holding that neither of the two great parties has so put itself on record, Swallow's resolutions state that no Methodist voter of State or nation can vote for either the Republican or the Democratic party onpenalty of being openly challenged for having performed an unchristian and unmethodist act. The resolutions throughout are an attack upon President McKinley for his alleged indorsement of the Canteen law.

Bishop Foss ruled that the resolutions should go to the Executive Committee under the rule, providing that all resolutions should be thus referred for report. a paragraph practically obligating Methodists

Changing Tastes.

For children between the ages of 4 and 16 years there is a considerable latitude in the choice of apparel. The taste has a much wider range in styles and patterns for the very little boys. As they grow older, boys care less for the pretty things that once delighted them and want to dress like their fathers. That's all right. Our Clothing is made precisely on those lines.

PLAINFIELD, Oct. 24 -Only one more victory s necessary to make the Park Club the permanent owners of the State Challenge Whist Trophy. ent owners of the State Challenge Whist Trophy. Last evening the home team won its fourteenth match for the trophy by defeating the Forest Hill team, challengers, by a score of 10 to 5. It was a close match, but the Parks showed their superiority from the first. By careful, consistent playing, they took the lead, and maintained it throughout. At the end of the first round the game stood 3 to 2 in favor of the home team, the second round was also won by the Park Club by a score of 5 to 0. An attempt was made by the visitors in the last round to win, but they only gained a single point, the score being 3 to 2 in their favor.

Tom O'Rouke yesterday posted $2,500 on behalf of Joe Walcott and covered the money put up by Sharkey last week. O'Rourke is f the opinion that Walcott can whip Sharkey of the opinion that walcott can whip Sharkey in six rounds. "What is the use of his bluffing about wanting to meet Ruhlin," writes O'Rourke, "after the trimming he received at Gus Ruhlin's hands. He states that he wants to meet Jeffries again, but no coaxing of mine could get him to meet the champion again. Sharkey and all the rest of the big men in the ring to-day, barring Jeffries, of course, draws the color line. Sharkey is afraid of Walcott, tast is all." that is all."

When Sharkey was seen in regard to O'Rourke's statement he said: "He is sore because he cannot manage me in the future. Ever," time O'Rourke dislikes any one he tries to foist Walcott on them. Well, he can have him for all I care. Why doesn't Walcott fight
